CCJC Membership Form

Donor and member support has played an important role in CCJC's ability to bring communities together to foster restorative approaches to justice. You may become a member of CCJC as an individual or an organization and thus support education, advocacy and community development initiatives that foster healthier communities and crime prevention through social responsibility.

CCJC relies on its members for advice and reflection. Members benefit from access to CCJC's network of regional and local faith and community justice organizations, enjoy voting rights at CCJC's Annual General Meeting, and are eligible to be nominated to the Board of Directors.

To become a member of the CCJC, please complete this form and mail it to our office (200 Isabella Street, Suite 303, Ottawa ON K1S 1V7) along with a cheque payable to the Church Council on Justice and Corrections.
